

Shiloh Garvin began studying the cello with George when he joined Project STEP in September 2002 as a first-grade student.

Remembrances of George R. Seaman, by Keisa and Shiloh Garvin

May 2003

*Thank you George for a wonderful bow for your words of encouragement for the love and kindness you showed You had a smile for every class
You didn't think it too much to ask
It was naturally you
You shined right through Missing you is what we do
We'll never forget you-a part of our lives
In our heart you will always lie*
