

ABDI ALI

Project STEP music students, from left, back row, Keilina Monteiro Do Canto of Weymouth; Kerby Louis Roberson of Milton; front row, Tamara Cambroner of Braintree; Alba Gilabert-Reid of Quincy; and Michael Roberson of Milton. They are five of 44 Project STEP music students who were recently honored with the National Arts and Humanities Youth Program Award. Project STEP (String Training and Education Program) was recognized for its year-round classical string training program for under-represented minorities.